The Book Whisperer:

Instilling the Love of Reading in Every Child

Grades K–12

Graduate Credit: 1 semester hour

Based on The Book Whisperer by teacher and blogger Donalyn Miller, this course offers a practical and inspirational approach for turning every child into a reader. Referencing her own experience, Miller explains how her sixth-grade students, no matter how far behind they are, end up reading an average of 40 to 50 books a year. Miller’s unconventional approach dispenses with the drills and worksheets that make reading a chore. Instead, she helps students navigate the world of literature and gives them time to read books they pick out themselves. Her love of books and teaching is both infectious and inspiring. She includes a list of recommended “kid lit” to help parents and teachers find books that will appeal to students.

In this course, educators critically reflect and analyze the book’s content with the goal of selecting specific practices to apply in their classrooms.

Recommended for teachers and parents of grades 4–12.

Method of Assessment

This online, self-paced course is based on the book you selected. The course provides the opportunity to study several educational concepts and apply them to practical teaching situations. You will read the book in its entirety. Assessment is conducted by completing all sections of an Assignment Organizer, which is a 5- to 7-page reflective paper demonstrating that educators have met the outcomes of the course.
