The ESL/ELL Teacher's Survival Guide: Strategies to Support English Language Learners

Grades 4-12

Graduate Credit: 1 Semester Hour

The number of English language learners in U.S. schools is projected to grow to twenty-five percent by 2025. In their book, The ESL/ELL Teacher's Survival Guide: Ready-to-Use Strategies, Tools, and Activities for Teaching All Levels, Larry Ferlazzo and Katie Hull-Sypnieski, provide educators with practical strategies for setting up an ESL-friendly classroom, motivating and interacting with students, communicating with parents of English learners, and navigating the challenges inherent in teaching ESL students. Upon completion, educators critically reflect and analyze the book's content with the goal of selecting specific strategies to apply in their classrooms that can help English Language Learners achieve academic success.

Recommended for teachers, 4-12.
